THE HITMAN BACK STORY

Welcome to the E.D.F (Earth Defence Force) .

This organization has existed in secret for over 30 years. I have no time to tell you about our history in detail. In fact there are several laws and three oaths prohibiting me from doing so. But the situation has changed, and it has become vital that I make contact with you.

My name will remain classified, but I am known to the enemy as 'The Hitman' and I am the only one left.

For over 30 years the E.D.F has maintained defensive Orbiting Stations (OrbS) around the Earth, after it was reported by Apollo missions that they had found complicated and intelligent signals emanating from the moon's surface. The signals had not been noticed before, as they were directed outwards, away from the Earth.

In 1975 these signals were decoded. It was a message, detailing Earth's minerals, vegetation, life forms and its lack of defenses. It concluded by saying that "Earth is ready for colonization". There was only one conclusion. Alarmed, the United Nations secretly enacted the E.D.F Bill, beginning the construction of a force that could withstand an alien invasion, and over the years the E.D.F grew, building more and more OrbS and a lunar base.

Since the 1980's skirmishes with aliens were becoming common. These aliens refer to themselves as 'The Rebellion', but little more is known of them. My parents were E.D.F soldiers. They left Earth for combat service in 1993, not knowing my mother was pregnant. No children were allowed aboard the OrbS, but no-one could leave service either. It is a lifelong commitment to be an E.D.F soldier, maintaining secrecy always. After much debate, it was agreed my mother be allowed to give birth, which she did, in orbit in 1994.

As the only child aboard I was tutored and brought up as a soldier, a warrior from birth. And on my 16th birthday it came.

The largest Rebellion fleet that we had ever seen.

Many died on both sides during the laser conflicts. The battle was at a stalemate until the aliens detonated advanced biological weapons. They killed every single E.D.F soldier bar one, me. The weapons seemed not to affect children or teens. Something to do with the changing biology of the body. I did not question it. Using every one of the skills I had learned from birth I fought on. I gained remote access to one of the OrbS, I improved my body with cybernetics and I rained hell down on the Rebellion fleet.

And I won, for now.

What few ships remained fled the Earth, leaving me one message,

"WE WILL RETURN"

THE HITMAN BACK STORY

So this is why I turn to you now. I need new and trained recruits. The best of the best, and I need them fast. Who knows when the Rebellion will be back.

If you think you are up to the challenge, to join me in battle at my side, to defend the population of Earth from an enemy they don't even know exists, then sign up today. Become a recruit and learn the skills you need.

Your Earth needs you.

Awaiting your reply.
